Grand Ball Monday Night.

The McEnelly Singing Orchestra is booked for another visit to the Colonial Ball Room, 271 Fairfield avenue, Monday night and it is expected that even a larger crowd will attend than on the opening visit. The McEnellys are all superb musicians who play and sing with a snap and swing that particularly appeals to the dancers and especially in the newer dances. The old waltz is again becoming popular and will find a prominent place in the dance program. An entire new repertoire of all of the latest instrumental and vocal hits will be rendered during the short concert and for the dancing. Admission at the same old price and a good time for everybody. Be sure you are in with the crowd.—Adv.

JOHN W. GRANT FOR CITY TREASURER IS STRONG CANDIDATE

Banker Has Unusually Large Personal Follow- ing—Was Noted Athlete.

Few young men in this city are better known and fewer still, by dint of industry and strength of character have in the same degree succeeded in impressing their personality upon the community as the Democratic party candidate for town treasurer, John W. Grant.

A native of the Park City, Mr. Grant is a fine example of a self-made young man. Having passed through the public schools, he entered the Bridgeport High school from where he was graduated with honors. He entered Yale university where he completed his education and prepared for the business and professional career which he had marked out for himself. Upon leaving Yale he accepted a position of trust with the City National bank of this city where today he is the receiving teller of that foremost banking house.

Mr. Grant while in the High school and at Yale took a prominent part in athletics. He captained successful B. H. S. football and baseball teams, excelling not only in playing ability but in managerial prowess as well. While at Yale he was a member of the freshman baseball team. Mr. Grant has consistently maintained his interest in clean, wholesome pastimes, combining dexterity and skill, and he has been of much assistance since leaving college in aiding the High school boys in their work. He is one of the expert bowlers of the city and by judicious application of his talents for wholesome form of exercise he has built up a body and mind. His position of responsibility in the local banking world admirably fits him for the honorable and important trust of city treasurer and his popularity with the electorate of the city is attested by the many voluntary assurances of support which he has received since his nomination. Mr. Grant is married and with his wife and young son resides at 104 Yale street. Mrs. Grant prior to her marriage was Miss Lenore V. Burns, daughter of Owen Burns, for many years identified in a responsible capacity with the U. M. C. Co. Mr. Grant's candidacy is one that generally appeals not alone to the voters of his own party, but to those otherwise politically affiliated as well. If the Democratic electors of this city do their duty election day there is no doubt of the election of Mr. Grant.

Queen's Daughters Plan To Present Historical Pageant

It was voted at the annual meeting of the Queen's Daughters in St. Augustine's chapel last evening to give a huge musical production which will be a sacred historical pageant. This will be given within the next two months at a local theatre and some 400 or more school children will participate. The funds will be used for the work of the Queen's Daughters.

It is planned to make the entertainment one of the largest of its kind ever held in this city. A coach will direct the rehearsals which will start soon. The pageant, which will be of a religious nature, will portray the history of America from its discovery by Columbus and all the important people in the annals of the country will be impersonated.

The Queen's Daughters do a great deal of charitable work quietly and also support a small order of French nuns, called the Sisters of the Holy Ghost, who aid the needy and nurse the sick poor of the city.

Mrs. William E. Allen was re-elected president of the society which position she has held for the past two years. Mrs. John B. McElroy will be vice president, Mrs. Lyman L. Hill, recording secretary; Miss Agnes Fitzpatrick, financial secretary, and Rev. J. B. Nihill, rector of St. Augustine's church, chaplain and treasurer.

The directors elected two from each parish in the city, are Mrs. Thomas McNamara and Mrs. Joseph Whitcomb, St. Charles; Mrs. William Hickey and Mrs. William Watson, St. Mary; Mrs. D. J. Buckley and Mrs. J. Murray Johnson, Sacred Heart; Mrs. Henry Lee and Mrs. Stephen Horan, St. Patrick's; Mrs. James McElroy and Miss Frances Arnold, St. Augustine's.

The resignation of Rev. J. J. Kennedy, formerly assistant pastor at St. Augustine's church, who was chaplain of the society since its organization and also for many years its treasurer, was accepted with sincere regret. Father Kennedy was transferred to Bethel several months ago.

Kaiser Wilhelm is reported to have forbidden the further execution of spies in Belgium until he can personally investigate the cases.

HAPPY WASH DAYS

"Can such a thing be?" asks the woman who thinks of those long hours over tubs and washboard—and enduring heavy, wet clothes—and enduring tired muscles and an aching back. Yes, it is true—now that any home can have that wonderful invention, the

Thor Electric Laundering Machine

Put the clothes into it, push a button and it starts. Let it run while it sends great masses of foaming white suds through the fabrics removing every particle of dirt and grease. Push another button and it stops. That is all—nothing simpler—nothing easier to do—and yet it takes away all the unwholesome, unbecoming drudgery of washday.

Only 2 Cents to Operate

Only 2 cents for the current to operate the Thor for an hour—that is all—and an hour will do a good sized washing. Only 2 cents to save that rub, rub, rub that wears out clothes and tries the temper and brings that dirty, discouraging fatigue. Only 2 cents that is our guarantee. Won't you give that much to get rid of the drudgery when the saving on clothes alone will more than pay for it?

Will Wash Anything

The finest laces, the thinnest waists and lingerie, and the heaviest blankets—it makes no difference—the Thor will wash them all perfectly. White goods come out like snow—blankets have a wonderful fluffy surface, soft as down, cleaner than any hard washing can make them.

Call and See It

We will gladly show you the Thor any time you call. We will tell you all about it—then you can decide whether you want it. We invite you. Come any time.

Big Offer Now—Come In

We are making an offer now which will put a Thor into every home. Come in and let us tell you about it. See the Thor Electric Ironing machine and the Thor Electric Vacuum Cleaner, also.
